

Chino Police Chief named to Educational Hall of Fame Committee

Chino Police Chief Karen Comstock, a graduate of Don Lugo High, was appointed to the Richard Gird Educational Hall of Fame Committee at the May 7 Chino Valley Unified School District Board meeting.

Chief Comstock replaces former Chino Police Chief Miles Pruitt on the committee that recognizes alumni, former school district employees and major contributors for their service to the district.

In December, Chief Comstock was sworn in as the first woman police chief in Chino. She replaced Chief Pruitt, who retired that same month. Chief Comstock is a 1987 graduate of Don Lugo High in Chino. She began her police career in 1985 as a Police Explorer, and was later hired as a police cadet. She became a sworn officer in 1990.

Other members of the Hall of Fame Committee, as of July 16, 2015, are retired CVUSD administrator George Z. Gonzales, retired CVUSD principal Alan Berg, Champion Newspapers owner and publisher emeritus Allen P. McCombs, retired CVUSD staff member Bernice Gray, Chino Hills Police Captain Robert Guillen, Chino Hills High staff member Norma Reese, Inland Empire Escrow Operations Executive Kevin Cisneroz, Chino Valley Fire District Chief Tim Shackelford, Chino Police Services Officer and Don Lugo High Cheer Coach Trisha Partida, and Chino High parent and advocate Sally Santoyo.

The next meeting of the Hall of Fame Committee is 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, July 28, in the board room of the CVUSD office, 5130 Riverside Drive, Chino.
