Jobs:

Banker: $1200 per month (5)
Your job responsibilities are vital: you will be in charge of tracking Happy Board and Spirit Wear Points. Every Friday, you will enter the totals into each of your students' accounts. It's crucial that you maintain these records in an easily accessible place when you are absent.

Recyclers: $1200 per month (3)
These students are responsible for both classroom and school recycling. You will ensure the blue can is emptied daily into the yellow pod can. You will ensure the pods' recycling cans are taken to the white recycling dumpster on Tuesdays.

Technology Supervisor: $700 per month (1)
You are responsible for ensuring the classroom laptop is charged at the end of each day.

PE Equipment: $700 per month (2)
You are responsible for taking out equipment when we go to P.E. If playground equipment needs to be pumped, you will let Mr. Rossen know so you can get it pumped in a pod with an automatic air pump.

Gecko Caregiver: $900 per month (2)
You will feed and give the gecko water every day. You will also clean the tank as you see necessary.

Turtle Caregiver: $800 per month (2)
You will feed the turtle every day after school.

Supply Clerks: $900 per month (4)
Pass out papers and supplies to classmates.

Floor Cleaners: $1000 per month (4)
Ensure the floor is cleaned when we go to lunch and leave for the day. The custodian should be able to vacuum without picking items up.

Yoga Balls: $700 per month (4)
Make sure that yoga balls are pumped when we have raffles. Also, keep track of who has yoga balls so they can be moved back to desks accordingly.

Backpacks and Backpack Rack: $800 per month (2)
On Friday, make sure trash and Lost and Found items are removed from the rack. At first, recess, ensure all the rolling backpacks are up against the wall.

Lunches $900 per month (2)
Both take the lunch bin to lunch and bring it back to class after lunch. On Fridays, put the items left in the Lost and Found
