Chino Valley USD Announces K-6 Registration Dates for the 2025-2026 School Year

Parents and guardians registering students for enrollment can begin the registration process early January 2025.

Chino, CA – Kindergarten registration for the Chino Valley Unified School District will begin early January 2025. Parents and guardians can view registration dates for each elementary and K-8 school site by visiting <https://www.chino.k12.ca.us/Page/23317>. Dates include the registration period for students enrolling with a CVUSD elementary school for the first time, siblings, and all grade levels.

Documentation required during the registration process includes proof of age (required for first-time students entering transitional kindergarten (TK), kindergarten, or first grade), proof of residency, and immunization records.

Families enrolling their student for the first time can begin the enrollment process online by visiting <https://www.chino.k12.ca.us/Domain/5348>. Enrollment will then be completed at the school site. Parents and guardians who are unable to access the internet, need assistance with the enrollment process, or have enrollment questions, are welcome to contact the front office of their enrolling school site.
