

MEET THE TEACHER!

Mrs. Young

THE BASICS!

Hi! My Name is Mrs. Cindy Young. I was born and raised in Orange, County California where I attended Villa Park High School. Go Spartans! I currently live in Chino Hills with my husband, 3 kids and 3 cats. My oldest, Jake, is 26 and works at Sprouts. My middle son, Sam, is 23 and will be starting a PhD Program in Physics at Stanford in the Fall. My youngest, Emma, is living the dream in NYC, where she'll be starting her Junior Year as a premed student at Fordham University.

MY EDUCATION!

I graduated from Cal State Fullerton with a Bachelor's in Communications. After working in the public sector for years, I decided to pursue a career in education. My oldest is on the autism spectrum, and was my inspiration. I'll be starting my 20th year!
