Parent and Family Engagement Policy

2023-2024

School Policy Engagement:

EJ Marshall recognizes that parents and family members are their children's first and most influential teachers and that continued parental engagement in the education of children contributes greatly to student achievement and conduct. EJ Marshall jointly develops with, and distribute to, parents of Title 1 and Non-Title 1 students a written parental engagement policy, agreed upon by such parents and updated periodically to meet the needs of parents and the school. This policy shall be an addendum component of the School Plan for Student Achievement (SPSA) that promotes a meaningful partnership between the school, the home, and the community.

Title I schools will convene an annual meeting to inform parents the requirements of Title I and their right to be involved in the parental engagement policy, and the school-parent compact of strategies to increase parental engagement. The parents of participating students will be involved in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of its Title 1 programs and parent and family engagement policy and school-parent compact. The school will offer a flexible number of meetings and provide, if requested, parents' opportunities for regular meetings to participate in decisions relating to the education of their children and respond to any such suggestions as soon as practicably possible. The parent and family engagement policy and school-parent compact will be posted on the school website and distributed to all parents through regular means of communication.

Shared Responsibilities for High Student Academic Achievement:

The staff of EJ Marshall in consensus with research-based practices knows that the education of its students is a responsibility shared between school and parents. The school's primary responsibility shall be to have an effective learning environment that enables all students to meet the academic expectations set forth in the CA Common Core state standards. Parents shall have the responsibility and opportunity to work with the school in a mutually supportive and respectful partnership with the goal of supporting their child's learning. The school-parent compact of strategies to increase parental engagement outlines how the parents, the teachers, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic and behavioral achievement. EJ Marshall will provide parents with an explanation of the curriculum, academic assessment, and proficiency levels students are expected to meet. Through an Action Team for Partnership process school staff, parents, and community members will jointly review, plan, and develop a one-year school-parent compact by grade or department level of promising practices to increase parental engagement to include the six types of engagement listed below (Epstein's Six Types of Parental Involvement). The annual school-parent compacts will specify partnership activities for as many of the six types of engagement as possible. The school-parent compact will list district and school improvement goals and describe the "in the classroom" and "at home" strategies for teachers, parents, and students to implement. EJ Marshall's goals will include a school improvement goal in these three areas: English Learners, one academic area, and one non-academic area. The compact will list how the school provides two-way communication between home and school. It will also describe opportunities for parents to volunteer, observe, and participate in the classroom. Annually the school-parent compact will be updated by staff and parents, based on formal and informal data. Also, annually, the Action Team for Partnerships will evaluate the effectiveness of the school's home-school-community partnership activities and celebrate successes.

This shared responsibility will help the school and parents build and develop a partnership to help children reach or exceed the grade level standards.

EJ Marshall will support these home-school partnerships by using the following six types of engagement:

1. Parenting. We will promote and support parenting skills and the family's primary role in encouraging a child's learning at each age and grade level, and all staff members will work effectively with our diverse families. We will promote and support parenting skills and the family's primary role in encouraging a child's learning at each age and grade level, and all staff members will work effectively with our diverse families. EJ Marshall will support different parenting workshops. EJ Marshall can also provide referrals to other agencies to support parenting.
2. Communication. We will communicate about curriculum, instruction, assessment, staff development, school programs and student progress through two-way, meaningful, timely and effective methods. At a minimum, annual conferences, reports on student progress, reasonable access to staff, opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and observation of classroom activities will be provided to parents and family members. EJ Marshall will maintain the parent community updated of the school's events through the website, monthly newsletters, Parent Square and Aeries Parent Portal, and through display cases around campus. Parents will be invited to Back to School Night, Parent Teacher Conferences, and parent information events. All documents will be translated to Spanish, and a Spanish-speaking community liaison will also be available in the school's office.
3. Volunteering. We will expand the recruitment, training, and recognition of family and community volunteers; we will provide opportunities for families and community members to contribute from home, the workplace, and other community-based sites. EJ Marshall allows for parents to volunteer in the classrooms. The parents are to contact their teacher to set up the volunteering hours. Marshall also has a Parent Teacher Organization (PTO) so that all parents can volunteer through other means. Parents are also welcome to volunteer at various school-wide events.
4. Learning at Home. We will promote family engagement in learning activities at home including homework and other curriculum-related activities appropriate to the grade and development of the student. EJ Marshall will provide Parent Compacts designed by grade levels to provide ideas on how to support their students' learning at home. The school's website will also be updated, and it will include programs the family can use at home to support the students' learning. Information will also be shared via Parent Square, parent/teacher conferences, and Back to School Night.
5. Decision-making. We will include students, parents, and community members as partners in planning and decision-making. We will encourage participation by parents and family members in decisions that affect their child's educational experiences and comply with state and federal laws and regulations pertinent to family engagement. EJ Marshall will regularly have School Site Council (SSC) and English Learner Advisory Committee (ELAC) meetings to include the parent community in decision-making. All parents will be invited to these meetings.
6. Collaborating with Community. We will coordinate resources and services for students and families with businesses, agencies, service organizations and other groups and provide services to the community through our volunteer efforts and community improvement projects. EJ Marshall will collaborate with the District's Parent Center to provide resources for our community. We will also seek parent and community input through our LCAP Plan and our K-12 Parent Insight Survey.
