Homework Tips Needed!

Family Guidelines

FAMILY MEMBERS VALUE HOMEWORK

Do you set a regular time every day for homework?

Does your child have the papers, books, pencils, and other things needed to do assignments?

Do you set a good example by showing your child that the skills he is learning are an important part of the things he will do as an adult?

MONITOR ASSIGNMENTS: FAMILY ROLES

Do you know what your child's homework assignments are?

How long they should take? How the teacher wants you to be involved in them?

Do you see that your child starts and completes assignments?

Do you read the teacher's comments on assignments that are returned?

Is TV Viewing or video game playing cutting into your child's homework time?

PROVIDE GUIDANCE: FAMILY ROLES

Do you talk with your child about homework assignments? Does your child understand them?

Do you encourage your child to develop good study habits (for example, scheduling enough time for big assignments; making up practice tests)?

Do you help your child to get organized? Does your child need a schedule or assignment book? Does your child have a book bag or backpack and a folder for papers?

TALK WITH TEACHERS TO RESOLVE PROBLEMS

Do you meet the teacher early in the year BEFORE any problems arise? If a problem comes up, do you meet with the teacher?

Do you cooperate with the teacher to work out a plan and a schedule to solve homework problems?

Do you follow up with the teacher and with your child to make sure the plan is working?
