

Paying for College 101: Free $ First

A virtual event hosted by Sallie Mae

Greetings!

Join us for a special virtual event for high school juniors and seniors. Invite your students to join former educator turned hip hop artist, Dee-1 for a virtual assembly like no other.

You can choose a day and time from the following:

- Tuesday October 27
 - 2 – 3 p.m. ET
 - 7 – 8 p.m. ET
- Wednesday, October 28
 - 10 – 11 a.m. ET
 - 12 – 1 p.m. ET

Join the event on YouTube Live: www.youtube.com/c/salliemae

Dee-1 keeps it real as he uses his relatable college experience to talk to your students about the higher education decisions they'll be making and what they can mean for their future. If Dee-1 could talk to his younger, high school self, no doubt he'd be laying down how important applying for free money first is. Filing the FAFSA and applying for scholarships could save your students hundreds, even thousands!

Don't miss out on this inspiring presentation.

Notable comments about Dee-1's past events:

"You can see kids leaving inspired...They're planning for their future. It's an exciting event to be a part of. Dee-1 speaks these kids' language and you can see the inspiration." – Secretary of the Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions

"When these kids go back to their schools, it's going to help them prioritize their goals. Dee-1 gave them inspiration and motivation...and he gave them courage." – Fred Rieley, Culture Responsive Teacher, Milwaukee Washington High School

We hope you and your students join us and Dee-1 at one of these live events!
