- Member Communications
 - Michael Leeming said he thinks the new Chino HS campus is very well done and that it looks more like a university than a high school campus.
 - Art Bennet thanked staff for quick answers to his questions and wants to reassure the public that proper oversight of bond funds is happening by both the committee and District staff. He believes every student in the district should have nice school facilities and that CVUSD is doing things right. He agreed that test scores are very important to monitor and that he has confidence that the District will continue to ensure all the right things are in place with the curriculum to continue to raise test scores every year.
- Next Meeting – Wednesday, November 1, 2023, 5:00 p.m.
