CVUSD Welcomes Community Input to Name Its Newest School in the Chino Preserve Area

The Board of Education will accept online comments from the community and host a public hearing as Board members consider names for Chino Valley USD's newest school.

Chino, CA – Beginning November 4, 2022, Chino Valley USD families and community members are welcomed to submit input regarding the naming of the Preserve School #2 in Chino. Electronic comments and recommendations may be submitted through December 15, 2022, via the District's website at <https://www.chino.k12.ca.us/Page/52688>. To access this site from the District website homepage, interested parties can select the Measure G shortcut located at the bottom of the webpage.

On December 15, 2022, during its December meeting, the Board of Education will host a public hearing on proposed names received by the community, and entertain additional public comments. Final considerations will be completed during the January 19, 2023, Board of Education meeting with Board members taking action according to Board Policy 7310 – Naming of a Facility.

The District will hold a groundbreaking ceremony for the project at 9 a.m. on Thursday, November 10, 2022. Speakers will include the Board of Education president, PBK architect, and C.W. Driver representative.

Information regarding the construction and naming of the Preserve School #2, including key dates and project timelines, can be found on the District website on the Measure G webpage.
