Chino Valley USD is Accepting Applications for Cal Aero-Preserve School II Boundary Committee
Applicants selected to represent the Cal Aero-Preserve School II community will assist in establishing the attendance boundary for the 2024-2025 school year.

Chino, CA – With Preserve School II currently under construction, the District has begun the process to establish the attendance boundary for Cal Aero Preserve Academy and the new campus.

Through January 31, 2023, parties interested in serving on the eight (8) to ten (10) member special committee are encouraged to submit a Cal Aero-Preserve School II Boundary Committee Application. The committee will include parents and guardians who currently have a student enrolled in Cal Aero Preserve Academy and two (2) community members residing in the Preserve area.

Over the course of three (3) to five (5) months, committee members will collaborate with CVUSD staff and its boundary consultants to determine the attendance boundary for the two schools.

Applications can be accessed via the district website at <https://www.chino.k12.ca.us/Page/53679>. Once on the CVUSD homepage at <https://www.chino.k12.ca.us>, visitors can scroll to the bottom and find the link under Announcements.

Completed applications can be emailed to the CVUSD Director of Communications, Andi Johnston, at andrea_johnston@chino.k12.ca.us or mailed to:

Chino Valley Unified School District
Attn: Andi Johnston
5130 Riverside Dr.
Chino, CA 91710

Applicants selected to serve on the Boundary Committee will be notified via email.
