CLASSROOM FAQs

What happens if a student breaks a classroom/school rule?

Students are expected to follow PRIDE expectations, which will be reviewed at the beginning of school. Failure to do so may result in the following: a verbal warning, detention, parent notification, parent and administration notification, or a student meeting with administration.

Do you give extra help?

Yes! I am more than happy to help you if you are struggling with a particular concept. I am free after school (except on Tuesdays/early release days). Please make an appointment with me at least a day in advance.

Can I use my cell-phone?

The classroom is a no cell-phone zone unless specifically instructed to take out phones for a lesson. If your parents/ guardians need to reach you in an emergency, they must call the office. Leave all cell phones turned OFF (not on vibrate) in your backpack. All cell phones that are seen in class will be confiscated and delivered to the office. Phones must be picked up at the office by a parent or guardian at the end of the school day.

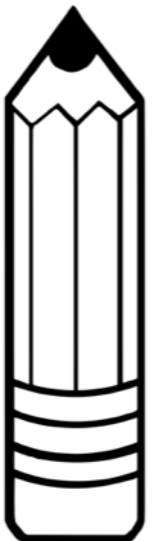

What if I miss a day?

Any classwork, quizzes, tests, or assigned homework that was due on a day when a student was absent must be made up and turned in within a week of the student's return to school. Please check the class "ABSENT WORK" folder for a list of work completed / assigned.

What if I pass work in late?

Most late work, excluding writing assignments and some classwork, will be accepted until the end of the unit.

For any assignment that is handed in late, it may be subject to not receiving full credit.

"Success is the sum of small efforts, repeated day in and day out."
