

While studying US History this year, I would like to supplement learning with portions of and in some cases the entirety of the following films and programs. Please review these descriptions, and sign for those that you give permission for your daughter/son to watch. If you give your consent for each film, in its entirety, check the last box and sign.

1. America: the Story of US is a documentary series, produced and shown on the History Channel, which surveys the history of the US starting with the 13 colonies. It is not MPAA rated. The series utilizes dramatic reenactments and interviews.

Yes, my child may watch the film

Signature

2. A Farewell to Arms (1932) is a film based on the novel with the same name, it follows American ambulance driver, Lt. Henry, in Italy during World War I. The film also analyses Lt. Henry's feelings on war and the purpose of fighting. It is not MPAA rated.

Yes, my child may watch the film

Signature

3. Iron Jawed Angels focuses on the American women's suffrage movement during the 1910s and follows women's suffrage leaders Alice Paul and Lucy Burns as they use peaceful and effective nonviolent strategies, tactics, and dialogues to revolutionize the American feminist movement to grant women the right to vote. Age: 13+; No MPAA Rating. There is there is an implied sexual sequence that will be censored by the teacher.

Yes, my child may watch the film

Signature

4. Dear America: Letters Home from Vietnam is a documentary of primary sources from soldiers in the Vietnam War. It is rated PG-13 for language and brief Nudity. Nudity scene will not be show in class.

Yes, my child may watch the film

Signature

5. The Vietnam War is a documentary series directed by Ken Burns. The series features interviews with 79 witnesses, including many Americans who fought in the war or opposed it, as well as Vietnamese combatants and civilians from both the North and the South.

Yes, my child may watch the film

Signature

6. Various videos available through Safari Montage, a district provided streaming service that contains a wide variety of educational videos aligned with curriculum.

Yes, my child may watch the film

Signature

Yes, my child may watch all the films listed above

Signature

Teacher's Signature