Why is my child in the EL program?

- English Learner – A student who enrolls in a California school beginning in any grade level, transitional kindergarten through grade twelve, has a language other than English identified on the Home Language Survey, and upon assessment, obtained a level of English proficiency that indicates programs and services are necessary. Students identified as English learners receive programs and services until they meet the reclassification criteria pursuant to Education Code (EC) Section 313.

EL Levels and Support

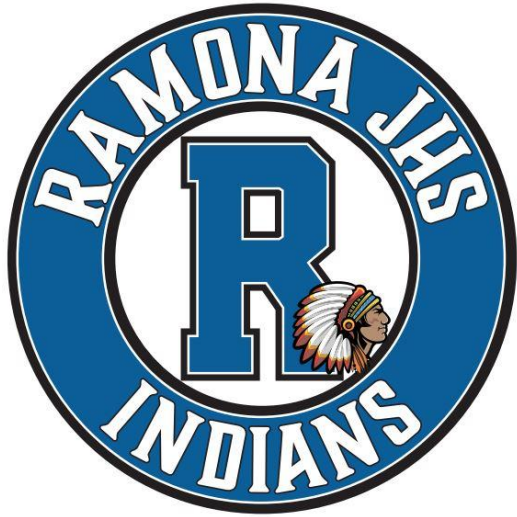

- ELPAC Levels 1- 4
- Emerging ELD Classes(1)
- Expanding ELD Class
(2-4)

Addressing Needs of EL Students

- All English Learner (EL) students, regardless of ELPAC levels, must have Designated ELD instruction until reclassification
- The ELD component of the Connections adopted curriculum addresses all proficiency levels
- Read 180 can be used to supplement the curriculum
- Integrated ELD is provided to ELs throughout the school day and across all subjects by all teachers of ELs

What is the English Learners Advisory Committee (ELAC)?

- Parent members are parents of English Learners (ELs).
- Parents of ELs constitute at least the same percentage of the committee membership as their children represent of the student body.
- This first meeting should be to clearly communicate to members the roles/responsibilities of ELAC and to elect DELAC representative.
- The ELAC shall be responsible for assisting in the development of the school-wide needs assessment and ways to make parents aware of the importance of regular school attendance
- Advise principal and staff in the development of a site plan for EL's and submitting the plan to the SSC for consideration of inclusion in the SPSA.
