

ESL Class Room 23

Chino Valley Adult Education

Johnny Reyes

Email: johnny_reyes@chino.k12.ca.us

Telephone (858)405-6795

Course Description

Welcome to adult ESL! This class will focus on developing your English oral and written skills in order to communicate with confidence. The class will focus on writing, listening, comprehension, conversational strategies and class participation.

- Writing – weekly writing in English will be ongoing throughout the year on a variety of topics.
- Listening – we will focus on listening and its relationship with thinking and communicating.
- Comprehension – we will work closely on understanding academic and social situations to ways to communicate effectively.
- Conversational Strategies – we will establish conversational rules and expectations for maintaining a conversation in English. (UCLA ESL 20)
- Class participation – we will experience conversations in class as we role play, presentation of projects and assignments as well as class discussions.

Class schedule

Monday – Thursday 5:30-8:30pm in room 23 from July 9 to December 18, 2024 (Semester One)

Information on the Chino Valley Adult School are on our website

<https://www.chino.k12.ca.us/adultschool>

Please email or text me if you are unable to attend class for more than a week.

Class Material

Materials will be provided in class during lectures and the use of Side by Side Plus textbook. It is recommended to have a notebook with paper, pencil/pen and laptop if possible in order to utilize resources available at any time.

Rewards may be given during class. Please share any food allergies with me.

