We are excited to invite you to the 61st Annual Family Conference for Gifted and Advanced Learners, hosted by the California Association for the Gifted. The event will be held virtually, making it convenient for families to attend from anywhere. The conference will take place on Saturday, March 25th from 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. (Pacific Time).

This conference is an excellent opportunity for families to learn about gifted education, network with other families, and gain valuable resources to support their gifted children. The conference features distinguished keynote speakers and engaging workshops on a variety of topics, including social-emotional needs, advocacy, and academic enrichment.

The California Association for the Gifted has been advocating for gifted and advanced learners for over 60 years. The Family Conference is a flagship event for the organization, and attendees can expect a high-quality experience that is both informative and engaging.

We encourage you to share this invitation with the families in your district who have gifted and advanced learners. This conference is an excellent opportunity for them to connect with other families and gain valuable resources to support their children's education.
