

STEM Courses Available:

1. Gateway to Technology 7th and 8th grade. Students will explore through Project Lead the Way, a combination of science, technology, math, and engineering.
2. Computer programming for 7th and 8th grade where students can explore the foundation of computer coding and programming skills.
3. Biomedical for 8th graders. Students will explore the concepts of human medicine that includes topics of physiology, genetics, microbiology and public health.

Students are provided excellent instruction that includes implementation of the 4 Cs, (collaboration, critical thinking, communication, and creativity).

Ramona Jr. High School offers (STEM), an extensive Science, Technology, Engineering and Math program as a basis for 21st Century Learning. Our goal is to prepare our students to be college and career ready. Students can choose from a variety of rigorous courses based on foundational skills and interest.