

Ayala, Chino Hills high schools take home top trophies from regional drumline contest

Drumline teams from Ayala and Chino Hills high schools took top spots at the 2017 Winter Guard International West Power Regional competition, held March 26 in the San Bernardino area.

Ayala High's Scholastic Concert World drumline won first place in that division, as well as firsts in music and artistry.

Chino Hills High's Scholastic World drumline won first in that division, as well as firsts in effect - music, effect - visual, music, and visual.

A drumline team from Ayala took second in the Scholastic World division, as well as second places in effect – music, effect – visual, and visual. Ayala also placed third in music.

Drumline teams from the two schools will compete April 20 to 22 in the Winter Guard International (WGI) World Championships in Dayton, Ohio. The event is considered a showcase for the best high school drumlines from around the world.

Ayala High's drumline has been named a Champion at the WGI World Championships 10 times, winning the Scholastic Concert World crown in 2006, 2007, 2009, 2010, 2014, 2015, and 2016; the Scholastic World title in 2010 and 2016; and the Scholastic A division in 1999.

Chino Hills High has been a Champion at the WGI World Championships three times, 2012, 2013, and 2015, all in the Scholastic World division.