All K-9 News Bulletins must be turned into the USB Office in the folder labeled “Announcements” on Mrs. Weiss’ door by the end of 3rd period each day to be read the following day.

= Thank you! =

Date Beginning: ____________  Date Ending: ____________

What would you like your announcement to say?

_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________

Name: ___________________  Advisor Signature: ______________

Thank you so much for continuing to make Ayala the World’s Greatest High School!
If you have any questions, please contact Mrs. Weiss in the USB office