CLASS POLICIES

Mr. Ceballos

Late Work and Absences

The expectation is that you submit all of your assignments on time, but late assignments will be accepted for less credit.

Each late assignment will be marked down one (1) letter grade for every day late to the point of being worth 50% of the original assignment value. Once an assignment that has been reviewed in class it will at that time no longer be accepted late to be graded, you will be informed of this at the time of it being assigned.

If you miss class for any reason, you need to check your Google Classroom for any missed assignments. First check the stream for the day's agenda. Then check the "Classwork" section, ALL assignments and materials are posted in your Google Classroom.

IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO SEE WHAT YOU MISSED WHILE ABSENT.

If you are absent the day the assignment was assigned you will have the same amount of days you were absent to make up any missing assignments before it becomes late.

It is also your responsibility to email me informing me that you have turned in late assignment(s) to be graded including the name of the assignment.

CHROMEBOOK USAGE IN CLASS

All students are expected to use the Chromebooks properly in class and follow the CVUSD Technology and Network Acceptable Use Policy. If a student is found violating the policy, they will be immediately referred to the Administration.

Academic Dishonesty

Students will earn an "F" grade, 0% score for any or all the following:

1. Copying another student's work and turning it in as their own.
2. Giving their homework to another student for that student to copy the work and turn it in as their own.
3. Copying or trying to copy another student's answers to a quiz, test, or any form of assessment.
4. Giving their answers to another student to help that student to cheat on a quiz or test or any other form of assessment.
5. Copying and pasting information from the internet and using it as their own to complete their assignment.
6. Using an A.I. program to complete an assignment and turn it in as your own work.

If caught doing any of the following or anything else that defines cheating you will also receive a detention and or a disciplinary referral.
