

Protest Music

Today we will be listening to protest music from the Vietnam War and look at some slides from both the war and the protests. Use the spaces provided below to jot down any thoughts you have while listening to the songs and viewing the slides. Use your notes to aid your thinking during our discussion.

For What It's Worth -sung by Buffalo Springfield (1966)

What is the mood of this song? How does it make you feel? _____

What do you think this song is about? _____

What about the music and the lyrics were particularly powerful? Why? _____

What do you think about the slides you viewed? _____

Use this space for any additional thoughts you have about this song. _____

Ohio -sung by Crosby, Stills, Nash, and Young (1970)

What is the mood of this song? How does it make you feel? _____

What do you think this song is about? _____

What about the music and the lyrics were particularly powerful? Why? _____

What do you think about the slides you viewed? _____

Use this space for any additional thoughts you have about this song. _____

What's Going On-sung by Marvin Gaye (1971)

What is the mood of this song? How does it make you feel? _____

What do you think this song is about? _____

What about the music and the lyrics were particularly powerful? Why? _____

What do you think about the slides you viewed? _____

Use this space for any additional thoughts you have about this song. _____
