

MCKINNEY-VENTO CARE PROGRAM

Serving our District's homeless students, unaccompanied youth and families by ensuring school stability and providing support services for academic success.

Students are considered homeless or in transition if they lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence under the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act reauthorized by Title IX, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA).

Support services for McKinney-Vento students and their families are provided by the District's HOPE Family Resource Center 12970 Third Street, Chino
Additional centers are located at:
Walnut Elementary
Dickson Elementary
Levi Dickey Elementary
Alternative Education Center
Don Antonio Lugo High School
